Richardson Oregon All-Star Series North and South Coaches Announce Probable Starting Pitchers

Monday, June 14, Corvallis, Ore – The North and South coaching staffs named their probable starting pitchers for the 2021 Richardson Oregon All-Star Series set for June 19-20 at OSU's Goss Stadium.

Saturday's series opening game will feature a couple future Linn-Benton CC Roadrunners; Kaden Segel of Grant High School for the North and Chase Reynolds of West Albany High School for the South.

Segel, the PIL Pitcher of the Year, led the Generals to a state best record of 17-1 and league title. The right-hander went 3-0 with a 1.75 ERA while walking 5 and striking out 35 over 28 innings pitched. He finished the season by not allowing an earned run in starts versus Barlow, Clackamas and Sherwood.

Reynolds was dominant in the Mid-Willamette leading the Bulldogs (14-3) to a conference crown. The righty went 6-1 and posted a 2.59 ERA. He logged 29.1 innings pitched and struck out 52 batters. Chase was the Mid-Willamette Conference's co-Pitcher of the Year in 2019.

Sunday's pitching match-up pits Metro League Pitcher of the Year Braeden Munger of Westview High School for the North and Carson Lydon of Churchill High School for the South.

Munger, who is committed to Lower Columbia College, led the Wildcats (14-3) to a Metro League title. The crafty southpaw went 5-1 with an impressive 0.44 ERA. Braeden struck out 46 over 32 innings pitched and only gave up 15 hits for the spring season.

Future Oregon Ducks pitcher Carson Lydon of Churchill High School was masterful for the Lancers. He made the best of a shortened season posting an ERA of 1.05 while striking out 31 over 26 innings pitched. He went 5-0 and opponents hit a paltry .177 off the lefty.

Segel and Munger were named by North coaches Matt Bailie of Westview, Matt Kabza of Grant and Ray Pearson of Lakeridge. Oregon State commit Wilson Weber of Barlow is set to catch for the North.

Reynolds and Lydon were announced by South coaches Taylor Blair of West Salem, Don Lien of West Albany and Kenny Niles of Churchill. Set to start at catcher on Saturday is future Oregon Ducks backstop Bennett Thompson, and Tacoma CC commit Dane Woodcook of Willamette is slated to start behind the plate on Sunday.

The first game of the series is scheduled for Saturday, June 19 at OSU's Goss Stadium. First pitch is 3 pm. The series concludes on Sunday, June 20 with a single game with a start time of 11 am. Both games will be 9-inning contests. The Richardson Oregon All-Star Series showcases the top 6A and 5A senior high school baseball players.

ABOUT THE OREGON ALL-STAR SERIES

Oregon High School Baseball All-Star Series showcases the top senior players from the state's 5A and 6A classifications over a set of games held each third or fourth weekend in June. The All-Star Series thrived in The Dalles for decades (1971-2007) as the State-Metro Series and celebrated its 50th anniversary in its last year at Quinton Street Ball Park in The Dalles. Bend hosted the 5A Series in 2008 and 2009 while the 6A Series was held in McMinnville those same years before the two classifications combined to play a 5A/6A All-Star Series in McMinnville in 2010. The Oregon High School Baseball Coaches Association moved the series to Corvallis in 2011. Reser's Fine Foods was the title sponsor from 2011-2016; Daimler in 2017 and Freightliner Trucks from 2018-2019.
