Richardson Oregon All-Series Announces North and South Rosters

Wednesday, June 8, Corvallis, Ore – The Richardson Oregon All-Star Series, which showcases the state’s top senior 6A and 5A high school baseball players, unveiled their North and South rosters this morning, as announced by coordinators Jake Anders, John Arntson and Scot McDonald. The two-game series is set for June 18-19 at Oregon State’s Goss Stadium.

The North roster features future Portland Pilots infielder Vinny Salvione of Rex Putnam and five Pac-12 commits: Wilsonville infielder Cole Hubka, Clackamas outfielder/pitcher Jackson Jaha, Jesuit southpaw Nelson Keljo, Lakeridge lefty Gus Rogers and Lakeridge catcher Mason Utech. Hubka and Utech are headed to University of Utah, Jaha and Rogers are committed to University of Oregon and Keljo is set to pitch at Super Regional bound Oregon State.

This past regular season, Salvione hit .447 with 7 homers; Hubka stole 42 bases and batted .491; Jaha went 5-0 with a 1.21 ERA while hitting .528; Keljo struck out 86 over 42 IP and recorded a 1.02 ERA; Rogers went 4-1 with a 1.43 ERA; and Utech hit .418 with 2 home runs.

Three Rivers League champion Lakeridge High School, who finished the 6A season with the OSAA’s #1 ranking and an overall 25-6 record, were the most represented program on the North roster with three players.

Willamette High School placed four players on the South roster, including catcher Griffin Bushnell, outfielder Dillon Butler, infielder Kayden Sandow and pitcher Blake Stavros. The Wolverines went 23-4 this past spring and are the most represented program in this year’s Oregon All-Star Series. Stavros was named the Midwestern League Pitcher of the Year.

The South also features two of the state’s best arms in future Cal State Bakersfield right-hander Ky Hoskinson of McMinnville and Oregon Ducks commit southpaw Ian Umlandt of Sherwood. Hoskinson will only be hitting in the series. Ky tossed a perfect game and no-hitter this past season for the Grizzlies and went 10-0 while striking out 105 over 59.1 innings pitched. Umlandt went 7-0 and posted a 1.10 ERA while punching out 118 batters in 69 innings pitched for the Bowmen.

The North and South rosters both feature 21 all-stars. Coaching the North squad are Joe Monahan of 6A state champion West Linn and Canby’s JJ Stolsig. The South is led by skippers Scot McDonald of 5A state champion Crescent Valley and Jeff Stolsig of Mid-Willamette Conference champion Lebanon.

ABOUT THE OREGON ALL-STAR SERIES

Oregon High School Baseball All-Star Series showcases the top senior players from the state's 5A and 6A classifications over a set of games held each third or fourth weekend in June. The All-Star Series thrived in The Dalles for decades (1971-2007) as the State-Metro Series and celebrated its 50th anniversary in its last year at Quinton Street Ball Park in The Dalles. Bend hosted the 5A Series in 2008 and 2009 while the 6A Series was held in McMinnville those same years before the two classifications combined to play a 5A/6A All-Star Series in McMinnville in 2010. The Oregon High School Baseball Coaches Association moved the series to Corvallis in 2011. Reser's Fine Foods was the title sponsor from 2011-2016; Daimler in 2017 and Freightliner Trucks from 2018-2019. For more info, visit: oregonallstarseries.com
