Richardson Oregon All-Series Announces North and South Rosters

Tuesday, June 1, Corvallis, Ore – The Richardson Oregon All-Star Series, which showcases the state’s top senior 6A and 5A high school baseball players, unveiled their North and South rosters this afternoon, as announced by coordinators Jake Anders, John Arntson and Scot McDonald. After a year hiatus, the two-game series returns June 19-20 at Oregon State’s Goss Stadium.

The North roster features four seniors from Metro League champion Westview (14-3), including Metro League Player of the Year shortstop Mason Guerra and Metro League Pitcher of the Year Braeden Munger. Guerra, an Oregon State commit, led 6A in OBP (.701) and batting (.592) and hit 6 homers. Munger, who is headed to Lower Columbia College in the fall, went 5-1, posted a 0.44 ERA and struck out 46 over 32 innings pitched this spring. The Wildcats are the most represented program in the Oregon All-Star Series.

PIL champion Grant, whose 17-1 mark was tops in 6A, is represented on the North roster by PIL Player of the Year shortstop Spencer Scott and PIL Pitcher of the Year Kaden Segel. Scott led 6A in home runs with 10 and hit .466 with 35 RBIs while playing a stellar short and recording an OPS of 1.721. Segel did not allow an earned run in his final three starts vs. Barlow, Clackamas and Sherwood, went 3-0 and posted a 1.75 ERA. Scott is committed to University of Portland and Segel to Linn-Benton CC.

The North also features Lakeridge shortstop Cam Clayton who hit .553 (with a .638 OBP) and right-handed pitcher George Eisenhardt, as well as Mt. Hood Conference Player of the Year catcher Wilson Weber of Barlow, outfielder Jackson Dorn of Clackamas and hard-throwing righty Joey Gartrell of Canby. Cam and George led the Pacers (15-2) to a Three Rivers League title; Clayton was named TRL Player of the Year while Eisenhardt posted a 1.73 ERA and struck out 50 over 32 innings pitched. Clayton is headed to University of Washington in the fall, and Eisenhardt to Xavier.

Oregon State commit Wilson Weber hit .532 with 9 home runs, 30 RBIs and 15 stolen bases; Dorn hit .481 with 20 RBIs and led Clackamas (16-2) to a Mt. Hood Conference title; and Gartrell tossed two no-hitters (vs. Tigard and Scappoose). Over 10 combined innings vs. West Linn and Westview, Gartrell only allowed two runs while striking out 19. Gartrell is headed to University of Portland to pitch for the Pilots and Dorn is committed to Mt. Hood CC.

The South roster features Oregon Ducks commits infielder Crosby Albee of West Salem (16-3), pitcher Carson Lydon of Churchill and catcher Bennett Thompson of South Medford. Albee hit .473 with 5 homers, 27 RBIs and recorded an OPS of 1.564 for the Titans.

Mid-Willamette champion West Albany (14-3) is represented by ace Chase Reynolds and outfielder Luke Killinger. Reynolds went 6-1, posted a 2.59 ERA and struck out 52 over 29.2 innings pitched for the Bulldogs. The right-hander is committed to Linn-Benton CC.

The South’s most represented high school program is Churchill (10-3) with Lancer pitchers Carson Lydon and Isaac Evaniew and outfielder Jeff Squires being selected.

In memoriam, the South also added the late Ian Spalding of North Bend from the Midwestern League as an honorary all-star. Ian was an extraordinary multi-sport athlete at North Bend, starting as a sophomore in both baseball and football in 2019. A servant, leader and role model, North Bend’s coaches awarded Ian with the Al Pierce Memorial Cup given to the school’s most inspirational senior athlete. Ian maintained a 3.96 GPA and planned to attend college and work towards an engineering degree. #1 will not be worn at this year’s Oregon All-Star Series and will be issued to Ian in his honor.

The North and South rosters both feature 21 all-stars. Coaching the North squad are Westview’s Matt Bailie, Grant’s Matt Kabza and Lakeridge’s Ray Pearson. The South is led by skippers Taylor Blair of West Salem, Don Lien of West Albany and Kenny Niles of Churchill.

ABOUT THE OREGON ALL-STAR SERIES

Oregon High School Baseball All-Star Series showcases the top senior players from the state's 5A and 6A classifications over a set of games held each third or fourth weekend in June. The All-Star Series thrived in The Dalles for decades (1971-2007) as the State-Metro Series and celebrated its 50th anniversary in its last year at Quinton Street Ball Park in The Dalles. Bend hosted the 5A Series in 2008 and 2009 while the 6A Series was held in McMinnville those same years before the two classifications combined to play a 5A/6A All-Star Series in McMinnville in 2010. The Oregon High School Baseball Coaches Association moved the series to Corvallis in 2011. Reser's Fine Foods was the title sponsor from 2011-2016; Daimler in 2017 and Freightliner Trucks from 2018-2019.
