North Tops South in 2014 Series

Corvallis, Oregon, June 15, 2014 – The North swept the South on Saturday, June 14 at Goss Stadium. The North took game one 6-2 and held off the South in game two 4-3. Nolan McCall of The Dalles knocked in four runs in game one for the North and made two outstanding defensive plays. In the second game, Jordan Horak of Lake Oswego earned the win and Harrison Reece of Lake Oswego picked up the save.

The South salvaged Sunday's series finale 6-3 behind a masterful pitching performance by North Medford right-hander David Crofton who pitched 5 scoreless innings to earn the win. Offensively, the South was led by catcher Tyger Liner of Corvallis who went 3-for-3.

The Bob Brockman MVP Award went to Jackson Soto of West Albany. The Most Valuable Pitchers were Jordan Horak of Lake Oswego and David Crofton of North Medford for the North and South, respectively. Brady Rediger of West Salem earned Most Outstanding Player honors for the South, and Evan Haberle of Jesuit for the North.
