Three All-Stars Selected in 2012 MLB June Draft

Corvallis, Oregon, June 11, 2012 – Three players in this weekend's Reser's Oregon All-Star Series were selected in last week's Major League Baseball draft held June 4-6.

Pitcher/infielder Carson Kelly of Westview High School went to the St. Louis Cardinals in the second round as the 86th overall selection. He will play at University of Oregon next year if he does not sign.

Catcher Josh Graham of Roseburg was drafted by Minnesota in the 22nd round as the 670th overall selection. He also has signed with Oregon.

Shortstop Lucas Hunter of Central Catholic was drafted by Miami in the 31st round as the 947th overall selection. He has signed with the University of Portland.

Several other all-stars have signed with Division I programs for the 2012-13 school year.

Pitcher Jared Priestley of Roseburg has signed with Oregon. Pitcher/infielder Andrew Moore of North Eugene has signed with Oregon State. And infielder Tyler Campbell of Lake Oswego has signed with Vanderbilt.
